7. There follows a partial analysis of a frontier zone (the Fifth):

5 Frontier Zone (code name Chavdar) Elhovo
Commander: Lieutenant Colonel Arabajiev
Deputy Commander: Major Vasiliev
Political Commissar: Captain Yanakiev
There are four sections (Uchastaks), each with four platoons (Zastava).

•

 8_{\circ} A section is organized as follows:

Ruen (sic) sub-zone of Voden
Commander: Captain Bayraktarski
Deputy Commander: Lieutenant Elenkov
Aide-de-Camp: Second Lieutenant Stanchev
Political Commissar: Second Lieutenant Marinkov
Officers: Second Lieutenant Martikov
Second Lieutenant Slavovski

9. According to present plans, by the end of 1951 the frontiers of Bulgaria will be marked with small pyramid markers; behind these markers the ground will be leveled in a 15 foot path, which will be covered with sand for the purpose of easily detecting footprints of any who may cross. About 50 feet behind this path a six foot high fence will be erected; behind this fence a mine field on a checkerboard pattern (distances of mines will be one-half meter from each other) will be laid; still another fence lower than the first, will be erected to keep stray animals from grazing on the mine fields. Behind this second fence another mine field is to be laid. The mines here will explode only under pressure of at least 60 kilos, presumably enough to allow small animals to graze there without harm.
